GOODBYE 2017 - HELLO 2018

MAY THIS YEAR BE HAPPY, FULFILLING AND PROSPEROUS! Whatever the year brings a positive attitude and a belief that all will be well and continue to work toward that end . . . all will be good. I am not sure any of us could ask for more than that given that the Holy Bible has God Almighty creating all we know and simply claiming that it was good. I'm just saying.

A QUOTE FOR THE NEW YEAR THAT IS 2018 ~

The last fire of many that have blazed on my hearth these twelve months gone is fast sinking into ashes. I do not care to revive its expiring flame, because I find its slow fading into darkness harmonious with the hour and the thought which comes with it as the shadow follows the cloud. While it is true that our division of time into years is purely conventional, and finds no recognition or record on the great dial face of the heavens, no man can be quite oblivious of it. New Year's eve is like every other night; there is no pause in the march of the universe, no breathless moment of silence among created things that the passage of another twelve months may be noted; and yet no man has quite the same thoughts this evening that come with the coming of darkness on other nights. The vast and shadowy stream of time sweeps on without break, but the traveler who has been journeying with it cannot be entirely unmindful that he is perceptibly nearer the end of his wanderings. ~Hamilton Wright Mabie (1846-1916), "New Year's Eve," c.1885

SO . . . WHAT'S IN YOUR WALLET?

Just a metaphor for what plans for this year are in store. What resolutions are you going to make and possibly break I wonder. I say forget resolutions and all through the year take some time to live like you are as free as a child living in the moment as if nothing else matters. Remember those days?

A very long time ago I personally decided to not make any more new year's resolutions and I have stuck to it every year since.
