ADIOS TEXAS

LAST XMAS IN TEXAS

The Watkins Clan has enjoyed their last Christmas in Texas. This year they will have Christmas in their new home as they have accepted a job in the Pacific Northwest in June. This is the first time they are going where they want to live versus where the Army sent them. It is scary, sad and exciting all in one leaving for a whole other state.

NEW SCHOOL IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Establishing an all new student base will be a challenge but again, exciting. Who knows, it might be easier to open a Comjuka-Kali Systems School in a non-military town. No matter what, School Charter 003 will re-open in another state. And like so many Filipino Martial Artists, I will be teaching out of my home as the garage is both big enough AND tall enough. That's how I started, in the home/school of Tuhon Gaudiosa Ruby. I am so thankful she accepted me as a student all those years ago! Maraming Salamat Tuhon!

I will miss everyone deeply but plan to visit about once a year so no worries and no need for goodbyes.

ST. PADDYS & SPRING

Time for a party and time for enjoying the awesome outdoors as everything becomes new again. Have fun and be safe ya'll!

TAKING MY DAD HOME

My brother and I finally get to fulfill Pops wishes and scatter his ashes over the mountains above where he used to live. I just have to get him there first and my brother will join me for the private ceremony.

It's true what they say. You always wish you could see them just one more time. Wouldn't it be awesome if after the ones we love passed we were all granted that one more time? Then we could hug them and say our loving and most likely tearful goodbyes. Also they could tell you where their important and legal papers are.

HANGGANG SA MULI

*Until Next Time,
Pito Antas
