HAPPY DR GAUDIOSA RUBY DAY

EL PASO TEXAS CELEBRATES DR RUBY DAY AGAIN YAHOOOO

It is the fifteenth year of the day El Paso Texas honored Tuhon Gaudiosa Ruby by giving her a whole holiday of celebration. How will you choose to celebrate Tuhon Day I wonder? For me this is another excuse to party and of course I will. I will have a barbeque, raise a glass or two and remember my Tuhon. We love you Tuhon!

SPEAKING OF PARTY . . .

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY coming up everyone! Our celebrated freedom from old Britain's rule is something we celebrate each and every day when you consider all we can do versus what we were not allowed to do in the past. So, true to the American spirit, do what you want as long as it causes no harm to others. This is the traditional "barbeque" holiday. I will enjoy the proverbial beef on the barbie. I would almost be willing to bet Guro Brian will have fish on the menu.

I miss you brother!

WE SCATTER POPS AT HOME IN OREGON

My brother and I will fulfil my Dads wished and scatter his ashes at the base of the Ochoco National Forest in Central Oregon. This will be a not as fun camping trip given the reason but we will have some fun one way or another. The last time my brother and I camped out there was with our Dad and other brother so we will honor that memory also. Goodbye Pops - See you again one day.

A HAIKU FOR POPS

*Thoughts of you each day
I thought we had more time Pops
I miss your laughter*

HANGGANG SA MULI
